

ĐỖ HÀ QUỐC TRUNG

Front-End Fresher Developer

About me

- > I'm a fresh graduate from HCMC Open University, who is passionate about creating beautiful websites.
- > I was self-taught front-end techniques from books and video-courses on the Internet. The more I've learned, the more falling in love with it.
- > Open-minded, ability to work individually or as a team when needed, self-studying and sharing knowledge are my personalities.
